Minute tariff

If you drive in a minute tariff, you only pay for minutes; kilometres are included. Every minute started is charged.

Advantageous bundles

If you choose one of the convenient hourly bundles, you pay for the car rental plus all the kilometers traveled, which are not limited and are charged according to the current price list. With the Weekend and 4-day bundle, you already have a certain number of kilometers included in the price, additional kilometers driven are not limited and are charged according to the valid price list.

Km

They are charged for all advantageous bundles that do not include km in the price. For bundles with included km, they are charged if you drive more km than included in the bundle.

Corporate car sharing

The monthly fee for the Comfort, Active and Business price plans is charged monthly with VAT. Applies to the entire company account.

Use of free minutes

Free minutes are added to the customer's account within marketing events, etc. It is possible to use a maximum of 30 free minutes for one reservation.

Weekend bundle

It can be chosen from 4 p.m. on Friday until 10 a.m. on Monday. You can choose it during your booking or during the rental period.

Week bundle

You can choose it anytime. The Week bundle applies to 24 hours x 7 days. The kilometers driven are then billed according to the price list.

Prague Airport

One-time airport exit fee. The airport fee will always be automatically added to your booking price when travelling from the airport. You will park your car in Building C - RENT A CAR on the ground floor in the marked CAR4WAY spaces and end your rental.

Deposit

In case the user does not want to use or does not have a bank identity during registration, the user can use the CAR4WAY services on the condition that he submits a refundable deposit in the amount of CZK 10,000.

Deductible

With a co-payment of 10%, the user pays a minimum amount of CZK 10,000.

We charge the price per km in advantageous bundles in excess of the number of km included in the bundles, and also in the bundle that do not include kilometers. You can only take one bundle per booking. Bundles can be chosen when making a new booking or during the rental period. Individual bundles cannot be combined. You will be charged for the entire reservation only according to the last saved bundle.

Billing starts with the start of the reservation by card/mobile and ends with the end of the reservation by card/mobile. If you choose the Weekend bundle and start using the car earlier, you will be charged a minute rate until the bundle starts to apply. We charge the full amount of the bundle even if it is not used. If you exceed the time period included in the bundle, we charge according to the minute tariff.

It is the responsibility of each user to ensure that at the end of the journey the fuel level reaches at least 25% of the car's tank capacity. If this is not the case and the user refills up to 100% of the tank capacity, he/she is entitled to a one-time reward in the form of 10 minutes free of charge for the next rental. The validity of minutes is 14 days; minutes can only be used in the minute tariff. Only one refuelling bonus can be obtained for one rental.
